PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

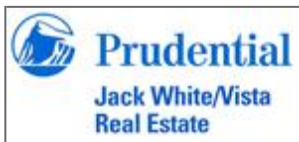

Wonderfully appointed and well maintained energy efficient geodesic dome located on a cul-de-sac in a mature South Anchorage subdivision.

The voluminous ceilings in the living/dining rooms or great room are complemented with interesting angles and triangular windows characteristic of a geodesic dome. There's also a private and cozy eating area next to the kitchen.

This home has so many wonderful and charming surprises, you'll want to take the virtual tour.

Large fenced yard with large decking, built in BBQ and seating. Lots of new features added to this home such as newer furnace, roofing, appliances, gas "wood" stove, and plank laminate flooring that has all the appearance of wood.
